JUDGE FLEM D. SAMPSON

The Choice of the People Throughout the District---Stands High
Wherever Known and is Especially Popular in Knox
Where Every Voter Knows Him.

Did More to Build up Knox County While Judge of the County Court Than Any Man
Before Him.

Comes Before the Voters With A Spotless Record
and Relies on his Friends for Support.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER TO US.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the official announcement of Judge F. D. Sampson for the nomination for Circuit Judge of this the 34th Judicial District of Kentucky.

Judge Sampson is in every way qualified to fill this position with credit to himself and with honor to the district.

For the past sixteen years he has been a member of the Knox County Bar and from the very first has been recognized as among the most able members of the bar, and his large practice and remarkable success has won for him a reputation as a lawyer throughout the entire State.

In 1905 he was elected County Judge of Knox County without opposition and served to the end of his term to the entire satisfaction of the entire county. He was urged to make the race a second time but he declined on account of pressing law business, and has never sought or asked for any other office.

The pressure and influence of his friends, both in Knox and

Whitley counties, has caused him to become a candidate for the nomination, and he is in the race to win, and we predict that he will win by a large majority.

From the very time that the committee fixed the date of the primary his friends have been earnestly at work in his behalf, and from present indications he will receive practically the entire vote of the district even if some other candidate should decide to enter the race.

Judge Sampson is a man of firm conviction and possesses courage and manhood sufficient to decide for himself any matter that might come before him without being influenced by relatives or associates when matters of law are involved. Judge Sampson knows the law and if elected, which he is sure to be, will see that it is properly enforced without fear or favor.

A vote for Judge Sampson is a vote for the betterment of the district. Don't fail to vote for him in the primary, February 4, 1911.

Judge Flem D. Sampson,
As he appeared Five years ago when he was elected Judge of the Knox County Court. Since then he shaves clean, but otherwise looks much the same.

We will present a new cut before the campaign closes.

CHRISTMAS 1910

Fittingly Celebrated by Most of Barbourville's
Populace

Christmas was celebrated by most all the churches, and the citizens generally, distributing good cheer to all alike. The Christmas festivities in the churches were most beautiful and the little Sunday School folks did their part in the opening exercises in well regulated order, and the little folks, as well as not a few of the older people, had a genuine old fashioned Christmas feeling for the little folks of Barbourville.

And some had so much Christmas dispensed from the "Little Brown Jug," which fixed them in good shape to celebrate Christmas in a staggering way under the load from the wine cup; but they were all filled with the "spirits" of good cheer to their companions who were also filled with the same kind of "Old Taylor" spirits.

Many presents were exchanged between neighbor and neighbor; between the young man and his best girl; which will link neighbors into closer friendship; and weld the link that binds the young man to his best girl in closer relations to life.

In all Christmas was a beautiful, bright day, and the good cheer distributed here among Barbourville's populace—both little and big—will be long remembered as a joyous season of pleasures. —A. W. S.

A Startling Report

It is somewhat amusing to see how the Democratic press is trying to stir up strife within the ranks of the Republican party. A dispatch to the Courier-Journal this week reports a breach between Caleb Powers and Charles Finley over the Judicial Primary, when in fact, there is no truth whatever in the report. Mr. Powers has gone to Washington on some important business matters and is taking no hand in the Primary, and as yet there is no other candidate in the race against Judge Sampson, so that it is evident that the reported rupture between these two distinguished Kentucky Statesmen is all bosh and originated in the fertile brain of some Democratic politician whose wish was the father to the thought.

It will take more than a Democratic report to convince us that such a report is true.

A Correction

Last week we mentioned the death of George Faulkner, and in doing so we stated that he was a son of D. B. Faulkner and a brother of Prof. W. C. Faulkner, of this city. In this we were misinformed as the deceased was a son of G. M. Faulkner.

Have your photo made while Snively is in town. He will be here only a few days.

Pastor Dances In Pulpit

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Rev. George R. Finn, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church here, did a song and dance in his pulpit for the education of the congregation. To the tune of "In the Good Old Summer Time," the minister danced and sang to demonstrate to the congregation that they should pay attention to their physical as well as their spiritual welfare.

Good photos made while you wait at Snively's. Over the Arcade.

WONDERFUL PROGRESS

Greatest Strides in History
Have Been Made in Modes of Travel in the United States Since the Days of
Daniel Boone and Davy
Crockett.

Palaces on Wheels Speed
Like the Wind Through Regions of Beauty and
Bloom While Chill Winter
Enwraps the North.

In the days of Daniel Boone and Davy Crockett and Kit Carson, travel to and through the South was either on foot or horseback and full of hardships. But today one may leave any Northern city, and in a day or two, traveling in perfect comfort under ease sufficient for even the most delicate invalid, be set down in a part of the country which will make him rub his eyes and believe that winter never comes.

The Northern Winter's threat is cold.
The Southland's Heart is Warm.
And in her fond and true embrace
We find a host of joys untold.
We find no over-pressing clouds.
Where Winter has no place.

Winter means to the Northland, ice, snow, sleet and chill, cold and discomfort; to the Southland, blue and brilliant skies, genial airs and balmy sunshine, the untroubled pleasures of outdoor life, scenery that never fails to enchant, foliage of perennial green, and flowers of perpetual bloom. The abundant and delightful outdoor life of the Southern winter is its chief charm, and no attractive feature has been overlooked or forgotten. Golf may be played on the finest links in the country; tennis on clay courts kept in the pink of perfection; surf bathing in water at a temperature of 70 degrees and above, riding, motoring over picturesque roads through tropical scenery and on the hard sand beach; yachting, rowing and fishing at sea and in land locked waters; chair-wheeling and bicycling on palm-lined promades and through tropical jungles. The finest climate in the world—every day a June day, full of sunshine. For the hunter, the South provides practically every feathered and furred creature from quail and squirrels to wild turkey and deer; and for the fisherman, a bewildering variety of game fish from the rainbow-hued trout to the majestic Tarpon. The Queen & Crescent Route has made it possible for the winter traveler from the North to revel in luxurious "palaces on wheels," which speed like the wind through regions of beauty and bloom. The many thriving cities, attractive resorts and historic points along the route make it doubly interesting. With the superb express trains, electric lighted and equipped with the latest types of Pullman drawing-room, state-room, club, library and observation sleeping cars, it is little wonder that so many tourists in the Northern and middle States visit the South by this great railway system. This road operates the finest trains in the United States between Cincinnati, Ohio, and Jacksonville, Fla., and New Orleans, La., and low round trip winter tourist rates are being made from all points along the line.

Queer Beliefs.

The Fijian cannibal's emotions have reference for the greater part to food, so he worships the god Matavaloo, who has eight stomachs and is always eating.

The Tenguans have a very curious dogma to account for a day and night being twenty-four hours long. It used to be less; the sun used to go down too quick. So one day a man caught it with a noose, and it had to go slower thereafter.

The ancient Peruvians believed that the sun once came down to the earth and laid two eggs and then went back up again. From these two eggs man and woman sprung, hence that yellow streak in the human race.

Fire in Country

Last Monday morning about 2:00 o'clock Mr. W. M. Tye was awakened to find that his home was on fire and was almost ready to fall in upon himself and family. They had just barely time to escape, and one of the children came near being burned in the building.

The entire house and household goods were destroyed by the flames. Mr. Tye carried an insurance of $1,500 on the house and household goods which was not sufficient to meet one-half the loss sustained.

His many friends extend sympathy to Mr. Tye and family in this heavy loss.

A Moonless Month.

The month of February, 1866, was in one respect the most remarkable in the world's history. It had no full moon. January had two full moons and so had March, but February had none. Do you realize what a rare thing in nature it was? It had not occurred since the creation of the world, and it will not occur again, according to the computation of astronomers for 2,500,000 years.

NEXT WEEK

Will Mark the Opening of
A New Year

Let's Carry Out at Least
Some of Our Good
Resolutions

With the close of this week the old year dies and the beginning of next week marks the beginning of a new year, so now is a good time to begin to form new resolutions, not for the purpose of breaking them in a few days, but for the purpose of living up to them, and by so doing make ourselves and also others better by it.

As a town, the citizens of Barbourville should resolve that we will not allow the next year to come to come to a close without our having done something to try to benefit the entire town. Let's all agree upon this resolution, if nothing more, that we will make it a part of our business to see that some kind of a manufacturing plant is established in our town before the end of the coming year.

If we make that one resolution and live up to it, we will have done at least some good for ourselves and for the town.

Let every one who wants to see Barbourville have a factory established during the coming year, express his or her desire on a post card and mail it to the Advocate, and in that way we may know your wants and will publish the result. Do it at once. Tell us your idea on a post card.

The Official Organ of the Republican Party in Knox County.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE FLEM D. SAMPSON of Barbourville, Kentucky as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Judge of the 34th Judicial District of Kentucky, subject to the Republican Primary, to be held Feb. 4, 1911.

JUDGE SAMPSON FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

The people throughout the county, and so far as we can learn, throughout the district, hail with delight the announcement of Judge Flem D. Sampson for the Circuit Judgeship of this 34th Judicial District of Kentucky.

Judge Sampson is a lawyer of well known ability, and his fair dealings with his fellow man has won for him the confidence, esteem and respect of everyone, and now that they have an opportunity to honor him by elevating him to this exalted position, they stand ready and waiting to cast their votes for him.

Judge Sampson is of a generous hearted disposition and was never known to refuse to aid deserving ones when called upon, and his public spiritedness has caused him to contribute liberally to every enterprise that has come this way.

Both of our colleges have received a generous subscription from him, as well as every church in the town has been materially aided by his liberality.

Such men as Judge Sampson deserve recognition and when he is elected, as he doubtless will be, he will stand as high, so far as legal qualifications go, as any Judge in the State.

Knox is lining up solidly for Judge Sampson and is expecting Whitley to join with her in making his nomination unanimous.

Every little country village has an ambition to become a trade center and a boom city, with no special natural features or geographical advantages. Under such conditions what is most needed is some enterprise on the part of its local capitalists. They must make the first advance in the uncertain field of development. They must capitalize small factories and see that they are employed. When the local business is finally developed and proves to the world that they are successful, then outside enterprises will be sure to step in and enjoy your prosperity with you. Just like a fellow who finds a favorite fishing hole and catches fish, and all the other fishermen who see that he is catching will drop their hooks right by the side of the lucky fisherman. The business men of any town should stop talking and hoping for others to do some thing for the town. They should get together themselves and prove to the world that they have a money making town. No outsider will want to fish in our swimming hole until we prove that they can catch fish.

We have for years past noticed one very undesirable feature in the attendance of the public school in the high grade, viz: There are, as a rule, many more girls attending than boys. Why is this? Where are the boys? They leave school, many of them, in their early or middle teens as soon as they are able to get a position as clerk in some store or office under the impression that they are wasting time by remaining in school longer. The average boy thinks that if he gets some business position that will enable him to earn a few dollars a month, and that looks toward his final occupation in life, while his classmates stick to school three or four years longer, he has just so many years the start of his companion who remains in school. Now the real facts in the case are that the reverse of this is the truth. The boy who remains in school and acquires a thorough education lays a foundation that will surely, other things being equal, enable him to surpass his class mate, who left school three or four years earlier.

Cheaper to Live

Someone who takes a rosy view of life, gets off the following: "There are men who argue that living is high, but they might try dying. A live man gets shaved for ten cents but a dead one pays a dollar and never kicks. A good kersey overcoat cost $25, but a wooden one costs $100. A grave digger will plant potatoes for twenty cents an hour, but for planting you he gets four times as much. A carriage to be theatre costs $2, but one to the cemetery cost $5. A saloon keeper will fill your hide to bursting for 50 cents, but an embalmer gets $7.50 for the job. Come to think of it there are lots of things left to live in this world despite the high prices and the contrary weather."—Ex.

MARRIAGE.

A game of chance in which the chances are about even. The man leads at first, but after leaving the altar he usually follows breathlessly in his wife's trail. The rules are very confusing. If a masked player holds you up some night at the end of a long gun, it is called "robbery" and entitles you to telephone the police; but if your wife holds you up for a much larger amount the next morning it is termed "diplomacy" and counts in her favor. In this, as in other games of life, wives are usually allowed more privileges than other outlaws.

The Lodge Beyond The Blue.

Is there Lodge room up in heaven,
Is there a master and brothers to?
Where the signs and grips are given,
In that land beyond the blue.

It is said, we know each other,
Tell me if you know it's true;
That we will use the word brother,
In that land beyond the blue.

I think I hear the Angels singing,
Masons, Red Men, K. P.'s to;
I can hear their voices ringing,
In the land beyond the blue.

The day is coming, not far distant,
Let us all our vows renew;
So that we may join that meeting,
In the land beyond the blue.

There we will meet the Great Grand Master,
Warriors, Deacons, brothers, to;
Singing anthems everlasting,
In that land beyond the blue.

There we will see them from all Nations,
When the gates we have passed through;
Oh, the many million Masons,
In that land beyond the blue.

If we knew we would not meet there,
Tis world here we sure would rue;
But we know good Masons go there,
To that land beyond the blue.

Now we end the labor of the old year,
And begin upon the new;
Let's get ready for the Grand Lodge,
In that Lodge beyond the blue.

If we never meet again here,
Let us to each be kind and true,
If we expect to meet each other,
In the land beyond the blue.

Fraternally,

W. H. McDONALD.

It is becoming quite a fad in Pendleton for the girls to go hunting with the young gentlemen. A tragedy nearly occurred the other day over in the neighborhood of Leuzburg. A young man shot at his sweetheart in a dense thicket because she looked like a deer to him. She returned the compliment because he resembled a rabbit—Falmouth Outlook.

First Christmas Observance.

Christmas gets its name from the mass celebrated in the early days of the Christian Church in honor of the birth of Christ, its first observance having been ordered by Pope Telephorus. This was in or before the year 128, for in that year Pope Telephorus died.

At first Christmas was what is known as a movable feast, just as Easter is now, and owing to mis-understandings was celebrated as late as April or May. In the fourth century an ecclesiastical investigation was ordered, and upon the authority of the tables of the calendar in the Roman archives December 25th was agreed upon as the date of the Savior's nativity. Tradition fixed the hour of His birth at about midnight, and this led to the celebration of a midnight mass in all the churches, a second at dawn and a third in the later morning at ten o'clock.

In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or an loved one? Improper Emblems and Devices.

In the Powell county local option case, where the drys won, the Court of Appeals reversed the case of Conley & vs. Hardwick, and held that the election was void because improper emblems or devices were printed on the official ballots. The ballots under the head of "Yes" which was the dry column, contained an open book with the words "Holy Bible" under it. In the "No" column which was the wet column, there was a picture of a whisky bottle with a glass beside it and a snake's head poking out of the bottle. The court says such things materially affected the election and are therefore to be condemned. The opinion says the proof showed that one old negro said, "I had ter vote under dat Bible fer if I hadn't de Lawd Almighty would er struck me dead."—[Jesseman] Journal.

Why does Great Britain buy its oatmeal of us?

Certainly it seems like carrying coals to Newcastle to speak of exporting oatmeal to Scotland and yet every year the Quaker Oats Company sends hundreds of thousands of cases of Quaker Oats to Great Britain and Europe.

The reason is simpler, while the English and Scotch have for centuries eaten oatmeal in quantities and with a regularity that has made them the most rugged, physically, and active mentally of all people, the American has been eating oatmeal and trying all the time to improve the methods of manufacture so that he might get that desirable foreign trade.

How well he has succeeded would be seen at a glance at the export reports on Quaker Oats. This brand is without a rival in its packed in regular 100 packages, and in hermetically sealed tins for hot climates.

Born—Last Thursday to the wife of W. H. Dishman, a daughter. Mrs. Dishman has been in a very precarious condition, and grave fears have been entertained for her recovery. The babe is doing nicely.

Ve editor and wife fared pretty well as Santa Clause was very kind to us. Among the list of presents we mention a beautiful water set presented on the Christmas tree by a member of the Advocate force and another which was even a greater surprise, was a ten dollar check presented by our very special friend John M. Robinson. These tokens were all appreciated.

1874-THE MOUNTAIN ECHO-1875
From the Pen of Hon. John H. Wilson and Hon. Vincent Boring, Re-Echoed from '74 and '75

KNOX COUNTY LOCALS, JANUARY 8TH, 1875.

Measles among us and many of our people have measly kids.

Charley Kenro was here last week.

Milt York's distillery is in operation.

Your attention is directed to the Grangers' column.

"Lots" of changes and moving around consequent upon the new year.

Wm. Tinsley killed a hog a few days ago, which had two paunches.

Quarterly Court yesterday. But few people in town.

Dan Johnson has bought Singleton's "Yaller Store."

H. H. Hunter, Circuit Clerk, has moved his office into the new court house.

Dave Colyer is back from the South. Stock market dull. He was in North Carolina.

The property of John R. Helton, deceased, rented for $503.00. The blacksmith shop renting for $144.00.

Miss Maggie Dishman entertained her friends, last Friday evening, at her father's, John Dishman.

We learn that Judge John Goodin, of Pineville, has bought the farm where Mrs. Mark lives, in this county.

Doug Vermillion, who has been living in Illinois three or four years, arrived here Wednesday night.

Abner Anderson has awakened from his Rip Vanwinkle sleep. Abner wants fire abolished in this Congressional district. Read his letter.

Stowe Harter, the Evangelist of the Lynn Camp Association with others, has just closed a nine days' meeting at Robinson. There were twenty attendees.

From S. W. Harmon we learn that Miss Nannie Owens had a nice exhibition at the close of her school, and that she gave satisfaction as a teacher.

Pleas Walker, of Whitley county, has a gourd which measures 5 feet 4 inches in circumference and weighs sixty pounds.

Had Capt. Ford run for Congress and had been defeated by 629 majority, we think he would not have contested, as Cockrill has done.

Col. Jon. G. Eve has been confined to his room for two weeks—pneumonia fever. Gord P. Bain is confined to his room—measles.

Shooting matches are "all the go." Jim Braddon, Wm. McDaniel, Wm. Fox and George Faulkner, challenge Lynn Camp and Indian Creek.

If that man who has that good mill to sell will advertise the sale in the Echo, instead of writing on little slips of paper and posting them about, he will find bidders.

W. J. Ore shot and killed a wild goose, on the farm of Mrs. Glascock, south side of the Cumberland river, two miles from this place. It measured five and a half feet from one tip of the wing to the other.

We learn that Hon. Jno D. White who has been in Washington during December, that it is likely a mail route will soon be established between Pineville and Manchester. From Manchester to Hazard the mail will be carried twice per week, and from Beattyville to Campton, twice per week.

Westerfield to Amanda Dora Baughman, Douglass Sevier to Kate Taulbee.

DIED—December 11th, Mary Jane, daughter of Joseph Logan, aged 19 years, nine months and 25 days.

There are a great many persons who were former residents of this county, who now live in other States, and being subscribers for the Echo, we thought it would be interesting to them to hear something concerning Barbourville.

The town is in the same old place and will never get any where else unless washed off by the Cumberland river, Richland creek or Smoky.

The public buildings are the new court house, in the middle of the public square, and the jail near by. The court-house is about finished, and cost $41,500. The jail was built in 1864, is ready to fall down and cost—nobody knows how much—say $7,000. There are about 30 dwelling houses, two hotels, five dry goods stores, one drug store; the local option law has killed the groceries—two blacksmith shops, two cabinet workmen, eight lawyers, two physicians, two shoe shops, one saddler's shop, two churches, one gristmill and The Mountain Echo.

The following named persons are housekeepers, with the number in the family: W. W. Sawyer, 8 in family; John H. Davis, 6 in family; John W. Reeder, 7 in family; W. F. Costello, 4 in family; Jesse T. BLISS AND WOE.

A kiss,
And a thought,
And the life of a minute—
Such is bliss.

A grave,
And a sob,
And a desolate home—
Such is woe.

The bliss
Can be made
And must, or we miss it,
And mourn it.

The woe,
Will or no,
Comes sooner or later to all;
And we brave it.

This life is too short to let bliss,
Slip by and be lost,
If woe be not bitterly present,
Take bliss;
And be sure, while you may,
That you have it.

Think About THIS!

you may want and at prices that are bound to please. Come and see my work and let me make up some for you. Satisfaction guaranteed.

UNION COLLEGE BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY.

Our school opens after the Holidays on January 3rd, 1911. We will have work in the following departments: ACADEMIC, NORMAL, INTERMEDIATE, PRIMARY, COMMERCIAL, MUSIC, ART and ELOCUTION. During the fall term, work has been given in all the departments except the Commercial. Our work in them has been of the highest efficiency, as attested by our students and patrons. Our different courses in the Academic department under the direction of able and experienced teachers, which, with our excellent apparatus, equipment, laboratories, etc., give us rank with the leading institutions of our state. The Association of Colleges for Kentucky, after examining our catalogue, courses of study, and work done, placed us on the accredited list in the highest rank "A." This means that the work done in our school is accepted by them or by other Colleges and Universities without examination.

The Commercial Department will be under the charge of Prof. V. C. McDonald. His training and experience well fit him for the work. Instruction and training will be given in Book Keeping, Short Hand, Type Writing, and other subjects which go with these, such as Penmanship, Commercial Arithmetic, etc.

Owing to the interest in it at this season, we deem it proper to make special mention of the Normal Department. Prof. B. C. Lewis and Joshua J. Tye will have charge of this work. They will teach all the Normal Branches for the entire five months. Prof. Lewis has been in this work long enough to be well known. Prof. Tye is a graduate of the State Normal at Richmond. This, with his wide experience in Public School work, well equips him for the training of teachers for the Public schools.

Board in the young Men's or young Ladies' Halls is hardly $9.50 per month. This includes room, heat, light, etc. Good board can be obtained with private families at $2.50 per week.

TUITION: In the Normal Department, per month is $2.00
In the Commercial Department, per month is 4.00

While we spend much more in instructing and caring for our students than we charge them, yet we are anxious to have all come who will. We exist for the good we may be able to do for the community. Hence, the greater our attendance, the better we are enabled to accomplish our mission.

All intending to come should notify us early, and whether they desire to board in the Halls or with private family. Students should arrive here on January 2nd.

For further information call on or address,

JAMES D. BLACK, LL. D., President.
Or PROF. B. C. LEWIS, Normal Department.
